

The Store of To-Day and To-Morrow children's little pique coats at little prices to-day plain tailored coats of beautiful white pique; flat collars and turn back cuffs; ages 1, 2, 3 years; special at $1.98 finished with dainty and scalloped edge; 1 to $2.50 child's white pique coats; single breasted; fastened with pearl buttons; collars and cuffs hand embroidered; 1 to 3 years; special $5.00 circular cape with hand embroidered scalloped edge; sprays of solid and eyelet embroidery; 1 to 3 $8.75 yrs.; special at...

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

is carnations, and tiny white Ellerson's guests included only he members of the Ellerson-Patteson bridal party, and were Mrs. Robert Oavy Eaglesheld, of Indianapolis, Ind. es Caroline and Matilda Pickrell, ew York; Miss Virginia Arm-Coles, of Albemarle; Sidney Eilerson.
Edward Coles, Julien H. Hill, Samuel
A. Patteson and Joel Perrin.

Natus Oliver and Paul Hall. Miss Margaret Neltnor played the wedding music.

Virginia yesterday. The 170 guests present were seated at many small tables scattered about the main din. Returning From England.
Robert W. Daniel, who or, and decorated with baskets of white lilacs and pink roses. aces were banked with great boughs vas hung on the gallery and arched this evening at half-after 6 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Annie Laurie Haynes, will be married to George Edward Roulette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clinton Roulette. sisted by the Rev. Henri S G. Keiffer, her away. She will wear a lovely gown of white embroidered charmeuse trimmed in point lace, and will carry a shower bouquet of illies of the valley and white orchids. Her tulle veil will be arranged with orange blossoms and will fall to the hem of her long train. Miss Katherine Peebles Pinner, of Suffolk, who will be her cousin's maid of honer, will be gowned in white embroidered chiffon, and will carry an armful of pink rosebuds. William U. Roulette will be his brother's best man. Other attendants will be little Katherine Keiffer, of Frederick, Md., and George Roulette, of Hagerstown, Md., who will hold the ribbons.

After a Northern motor trip that in-Atterine Keiter, of Frederick, Md., and George Roulette, of Hagerstown, Md., who will hold the ribbons.

After a Northern motor trip that includes places of interest in Pennsylvania, New York, and Niagara Falls, Mr. Roulette and his bride will reside in Hagerstown, Md. Guests from a distance attending the ceremony include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Roulette, Mr. and Mrs. William Winn Roulette, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leiter, Dr. John Wareham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vincent Jamison, Ralph Boyer, Henry Wolf, Paul Dechter, Foehnderstadt Hix, Miss Callie Boessler, Miss Virginia Huylett, all of Hagerstown, Md. Rev. and Mrs. Henri S. G. Keiffer, of Frederick, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddick Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddick Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddick Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pinner, Mr. and spent several days ner, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pin-Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pinner, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Chapman, Miss Virginia Jonkins, Miss Virginia Shoop, Miss Bessie Holland Miss Bessie Holland, Miss Therese Nurney, Miss Sally Twitty, all of Suf-folk; Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Hubbell, Stuart Hubbell, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thurman Brown, of Gratton, W. Va.; Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Apple, of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Miss Lucy Sims, of Louisa; Miss Jennie Strother, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Plummer, of Newport News; Mr. and Mrs. Charles von Uheirik, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Robins and Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, days is atives.

To Enterinia Guests.

Mrs. T. H. Ellett will give a tea at to Lynchburg, after a visit to friends in Richmond.

Miss Virginia Strother has returned to Lynchburg, after a visit to friends in Richmond.

WE MALE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china for shipment.

Rountree-Sutherland-

the League of Southern Women Writ-

Reception at Art Club.

A delightful reception was given at the Richmond Art Club yesterday afternoon to members of the Educational Conference. Representatives from nearly all of the educational institutions in the city were on hand to welcome the conference delegates. There was a large number of people present, who viewed with interest the splendid exhibit of the students which present, who viewed with interest the splendid exhibit of the students, which showed, by the work of the youngest to the most experienced member, the wide scope and excellence of the Art Club's teaching.

Among the members exhibiting were: Mrs. Jeffry Montague, Miss Adele Williams, Miss Nora Houston, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mrs. George Ben Johnston, Miss Adele Clark, Miss McClintock, J. B. Cowles, of New York; Miss Litle Pleasants, Mrs. Irving Clark, Mrs. Lewis Blair, Mrs. John B. Clothier, Mrs. Robert Hudson and Miss Belle Perkins. Two picson and Miss Belle Perkins. Two pic-tures by the late W. L. Sheppard were also on exhibition. Returned to Richmond.

Peter II. Mayo has returned to his home in Richmond, after an extended stay in the South. Mr. Mayo arrived stay in the south. Mr. Mayo arrived here yesterday, having stopped in Columbia, S. C., where he visited his daughter, Mrs. Cameron.

Miss Agnes Payne, who spent the winter in Richmond as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter, on West Franklin Street, has returned to her home in Clarke County. to her home in Clarke County.

to her home in Clarke County.

Stny-nt-Home Whist Club.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapin, 322 Floyd Avenue. Four tables were engaged, and the highest score was made by Mrs. C. C. Chapin and John Powell. The club will meet next Monday night with Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer at her home, 817 West Grace Street.

Hall—Oliver.

The Petsworth Baptist Church was e scene of a very pretty wedding on ednesday, April 2, at 7:30 P. M., when Wednesday, April 2, at 7:30 P. M., when Miss Orie Oliver, daughter of Cary Oliver, was married to Wellford Hall, son of William Hall, both of Gloucester County. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Noel J. Allen, and the church was decorated in spring flowers. The bride wore a gown of white embroidered voile, and her veil of illusion was held with a wreather of the country of the state of the country of th sion was held with a wreath of orange bendants, Henry Watkins Eller-tertained at a very pretty dinner on Monday evening at estmoreland Club. The table ecorated in Marguerites and en-white embroidered mull and carried bouquets of pink flowers. They in-cluded Misses Lucy Oliver, Annie Lou Purcell, Estelle Kemp and Margie Hall. Little Rosemery Morley and Doris Little Rosemery Morley and Doris Kemp were flower girls, and Virginia Moryimer and Virginia Morley held the ome luncheon at the Country Club of liven at the home of the bride's partered were seated at many guests of the live at the home of the bride's partered were seated at many guests.

Robert W. Daniel, who has been in London for some time past, expects to sail for this country on the steamship Olympic April 23. Mrs. James R. V. f cherry blossoms and dogwood, and drapery of pink azaleas and similar by the bankers of London, which pays the doorways and windows of the her son, who was one of the survivors of the Titanic disaster.

with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Cooke.
of Minneapolis, and Miss Allen, of Mew Bedford.
Roulefte-Haynes.
Ageension lilies, Southern smilax and of the Confederacy, is to be an event palms and lighted candles will deco-rate the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam- Some lovely old costumes will be worn, man V. Randolph, president of Rich-mond Chapter; Mrs. Walter C. Chrisand Mrs. Joseph Clinton Roulette.
The dining-room will be decorated in Killarney roses and pink shaded candles, and Ralph Boyer, of Hagerstown, Md., will play the wedding marches and Nevin's Love Song during the ceremony. The Rev. Mills Colgate Curiey, Mrs. B. A. Blenner, Mrs. P. W. Massie, Mrs. John Hughes, Miss Adele Curiey, Mrs. Sidney J. Dudley, Mrs. J. Daughtrey, a consin of the bride, assted by the Rev. Henri S G, Keiffer, ciation for the Prescryation of Virginia other-in-law of the groom, will of- Antiquities; Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, president of the Colonial Dames.

The bride will enter the drawing-room with her father, who will give her away. She will wear a lovely meeting of the board of managers of Little Miss Clara Shackelford took the part of D. C. O'Flaherty, Jr., in the tableaux, "Children Playing," in "Angels in Art," last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carrington, whose wedding took place last month, are spending their honeymoon in Ber-

Mrs. R. G. Porter, of Powhatan County, has been spending several days in this city as the guest of relhome on West Franklin Street. The affair is to be given in honor of the Tennessee women who are here to at their two children, formerly of this city, but now of Paterson, N. J., are the guests of relatives in Ginter Park for several weeks.

Mrs. E. B. Claybrook and her daughter, of Cumberland, Md., are the guests of W. B. Lightfoot, at 506 East Grace

Mrs. Rutledge Smith, of Tennessee, is registered at the Jefferson Hotel for a stay of several days.

Mrs. A. M. Randolph and her two children, of England, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Pace, on Grove

Cherry Corporation Mrs. Laura Radford, of Lynchburg. is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. C. Wherry, in this city.

The great popularity and general use of the Royal Baking Powder attest its superiority

When you buy and use only the ROYAL BAKING POWDER, you have the positive assurance that your food raised by it is not polluted by alum, lime, or any of the adulterants common to other powders.

It is unwise to take chances by the use of any other brand

LADY SHAFTESBURY NOW ON EXTRA LIST

Still Lady in Waiting on Oucen. but Will Be Called On Only on Special Occasions.

suffragettes in England, notwithstand-ing all cable reports to the contrary. She remains a lady in waiting to is to say, she is relieved of the obligation of taking her regular turn of periodical duty at Buckingham Palace or Windsor Castle, and will only be gency or on special occasions. She continues, however, to form part of the Queen's entourage, and will be present at all court functions in her ing to the Queen, and may be asked at any moment to represent the lat-ter at christenings and analogous ceremonies, or even to accompany her Lady Shaftesbury, who almost succumbed to peritonitis during her stay in New York on the occasion of the last race for the American cup, has sions with her husband. She is a wo man of much independence of character, extremely active, and her interests and activities are of the most admit of her being constantly in attendance at court. It is this, rather than any actual quarrel with the gette problem, that is responsible for her going on the extra list, as she that her husband, the Earl of Shaftes-bury, remains in office as lord chamberlain to the Queen and as the official chief of the latter's household.

Lady Fortescue who has succeeded Lady Shaftesbury in actual waiting, is the wife of the earl of that name, and daughter of Lord Harlech Fortescue family have always been more or less identified with court life heavy hair worth while?

HALHIMERS

Men's Night Robes

and Pajamas Full Cut, Low Collar Cam-

Fancy Madras and Cambric

$2.50 Solid Color Madras

$3.00 Silk Finished Pajamas,

SUREICE GREAM

Same Quality Every Day.

PURITY IOE CREAM

Monroe 1861.

Sample Shoes, Half

Price

ALBERT STEIN

Corner 5th and Broad

New Process Gas Ranges

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc.

1420 E. Main St.

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. OLD HICKORY FURNITURE, SOLD ONLY BY

Misses' Outer Apparel.

MILLINERY-Women's and

bric Night Robes, 50c.

Pajamas, $1.69.

Pajamas, $1.50 value, 98c.

himself is an A. D. C. of the King. His second brother, Captain Sir Sevmour Fortescue, of the royal navy, was equerry to Edward VII, throughout his reign, and has been retained in the same office by King George, beon Special Occasion.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

ADY SHAFTESBURY'S connection the same office by King George, besides being the latter's sergeant-at-arms in attendance on the House of Lords. Another brother, the Hon. John Contesting for the militant Fortescue, has been librarian of Windsor Castle since 1905, and the keeper of all the confidential and se-cret archives of the royal house which are preserved there.

The Fortescue family, which has allooks, was founded by Richard le Fort, a Norman knight, who was cup-bearer to William the Conqueror, and had three horses killed under him at the battle of Hastings, Indeed, so great was his valor in that battle, and so brave was his defense of the Luke of Normandy in the melee, that he was thenceforth known as Richard ie Fort-Escu, or Richard the Strong Shield. His son Sir Adam, known as Sir Adam Fortescue, obtained, according to Doomsday Book, a grant from the crown of Winston, in Devonshire, with which county the Fortescues have ever since been identified.

Sir John Fortescue was Lord Chief Justice of England in the reign of Henry V., and but for the negligence of a forbear, namely, Sir Hugh Fortesthe present Earl of Fortescue would to-day be Earl of Clinton, an older title. This Sir Hugh was summoned to Parliament in 1721, as co-heir of the very ancient barony of Clinton, at that time in abeyance, and as fourteenth lord of that line. He was subsequently created Lord Fortes. cue of Castle Hill, in Devon, with re-mainder to his half-brother, Matthew Fortescue, and still further on was created Earl of Clinton, without any remainder, But he neglected to marry, and the consequence was that his earl-dom became extinct, his barony of Fortescue going to his half-brother Matthew, while the ancient barony of Clinton again went into abeyance, and being heritable in the female line, a now held by a member of the Trefusie even brothers, of whom another pe and Lady Fortescue is Castle Iiii, which has been in the family since the reign of Henry VI., and was rebuilt George II., when the gardens now exist, were laid out. But Lord Fortescue's principal title to note is the fact that he is the owner of Exmoor, so familiar to all the readers of R. D. Blackmore's famous novel "Lorna Doone." Extending over about 20,000 acres, its wild red deer afford some of the finest stag-hunting in the Lady Desborough, another lady in waiting of Queen Mary (whose husband, formerly known as William Henry Grenfell, is famous on this side of the Atlantic as the recognized leader of amateur athletics in Great Britain, with all sorts of feats to his record, including swimming twice record, including swimming across Niagara, and stroking an eight across the channel from Dover to Calais), has just come into possession of an immense amount of property, inof an immense amount of property, in-cluding Panshanger, one of the most beautiful places in Hertfordshire, through the death of her aunt, the widowed Countess Cowper, Lady Des-borough has many American friends, differing in this respect from her aunt, who used to boast that no Ameri-gen had ever crossed her threshold. can had ever crossed her threshold, and whose prejudices were largely due to the prouble of the Cowper famlly with the American wife of the Hon. Charles Cowper, an actress, w. had achieved more celebrity by her eccentricities and extravagances of conduct than by her histrionic talent.

conduct than by her histrionic talent.

Panshanger is a stately, castellated mansion in a grand old park, watered by a large trout stream, the Mimram. The house is full of valuable paintings, and has sheltered many famous guests, among them Rogers the poet, the great Lord Brougham, Sir Isaac Newton, the Lord Chesterfield of the "Letters," Talleyrand, Esterhazy, Metternich, Palmerston, etc. ternich, Palmerston, etc.
The Cowper family, of which the

The Cowper family, of which the late Earl Cowper was the chief, is now extinct. One of its most notable member was .William Cowper the poet, and the creator of "John Glipin," while another was that General Spencer Cowper, who was one of the commanders of the English troops throughout the American War of Independence.

dependence.
No sketch of the Cowper family would be complete without a brief reference to the celebrated Sarah Stout case, familiar to Quakerdom throughout the civilized world, and which created so great a sensation two centuries ago. From that time forth until the end of the nineteenth century, no member of the Cowper family was ever able to stand for Parliament in the County of Hertford, without being greeted with the cry "Who killed Sarah Stout?"

"Who killed Sarah Stout?"
The fact of the matter is that Spencer Cowper, younger brother of the first Earl Cowper, was indicted for the murder of Sarah Stout. He was a member of the bar at the time, and when visiting Hertford at the assizes, as a member of the Home Circuit, was accustomed to dine frequently at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Stout, the leading Quakers of the place, who had a ing Quakers of the place, who had a very pretty daughter of the name of Sarah. One morning her body was of hearsay and gossip, Spencer Cowper, who had dined the night before and placed on trial for her murder. It was claimed that, angered by her resistance to his advances, he had strangled her and thrown her body into the river.

A certificate signed by six physicians, three of them bearing the name of Dimsdale, was produced to prove that she had not met her death by drowning, but by strangling, the ob-ject of this certificate being to disprove the defense of Spencer Cowper. infatuated with him; that as a mar-ried man, he had resisted her advances, and that in anger and in despair, she had drowned herself. As he was able to produce several letters in her handwriting, giving expression to the pangs of spurned love, the jury, turning a deaf ear to the pica that these letters were skilful forgeries, acquitted him, to the dismay of the Quakers, although this is a small appointment, although this is a small appointment, it is said here that the people of Broading a deaf ear to the plea that these

The sensation which the case created, and, above all, the skill with which the young lawyer defended himself, won for him great fame and many briefs. In course of time he was raised to the bench, and eventu-ally, returned to preside as Lord Chief Justice at the assizes at Hertford, that is to say, in the very court where he had ngured in his younger days in the felon's dock, on a charge of mur-

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood

#CraftsPiano Co

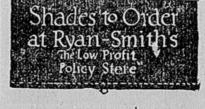

NOW LOCATED AT 205 E. Broad St.

"你这种关系是是一个人,

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

The English flat last, for men and women; tans and gunmetal.
$3.50 and $4.00.
Regular $5.00 values.

CABELL IS READY TO GIVE UP OFFICE

Makes All Preparations to Leave When His Successor Is Confirmed.

OSBORNE NAMED FOR PLACE

Nomination Only of One Virginia Postmaster Is Sent to Washington, April 15 .- When the President sent to the Senate to-day gan to make active preparations to quit the office, which he has held for the past three years. Although Mr. Cabell's plans have been known here for some time, he having told The Times-Dispatch correspondent that he would practice law in Richmond as soon as his successor qualified, it was not until to-day that he began active preparations to leave the office.

If all goes well, Colonel Osborne should be confirmed by the Senate within the next week or two, although there is strong possibility that the Senate Republicans may hold him up, in retaliation for what the Democrats did at the last session. In fact, both the North Carolina Senators—Over-man and Simmons—have been inor not the Republicans will take this line of action, but there is much talk about it here to-day. In the meantime, Mr. Cabell will hold onto his office, but is prepared to quit as soon as Colonel Osborne qualifies.

Miss Caroline Miss Caroline of the Colonel Colonel

There was only a slight shake of the plum tree for Virginians here to-day, one nomination, that of P. W. Pugh, as postmaster at Broadway, in Repre-

Pugh appointed, and others against him, but to-day's announce-ment settles the matter. Mr. Hay was for Pugh.

The Interstate Commerce Commis-sion to-day made an important ruling regarding tobacco shipments. An a plication was granted to establish rate for the transportation of smok-ing tobacco in bales or cases, with or without cigarctic paper, for advertising purposes, packed in the same packages, and plug tobacco in pack ages carloads, minimum weight 40,000 pounds, from Greenville, Tenn., including points in Virginia and North Caro. lina, to Pacific Coast territory, without observing the short hand clause of the act to prevent violations of the interstate commerce law.

from the best of land—for the best of land—for the best of land—for the best of land—for the best land States of Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Delaware, Pansylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massa-Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massa-chusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina and Rhode Island, arising out of the grant and cession by the State of Virginia to the United States, made March 1, 1784, of the tract of country within the then limits of the State of Virginia, known as the Northwest Ter-ritory, hopes to secure a favorable p-port from the Senate Judiciary Com-

CABELL COMING BACK

Former Commissioner of Internal Revenue to Practice Law Pere.
Royal E. Cabell, who retires from official life after serving as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, will return to Richmond within the next few days to resume the practice of law. Eight years ago he was appointed postmaster of Richmond, going from here to Washington as commissioner. In that position he had jurisdiction over all the internal revenues throughout the United States. During his term of office the excise tax law on corporations was passed by Congress, and was put into effect by him. This tax yielded an income of $23,000,000 a year, and the total amount collected in internal revenue taxes last year was $322,000,000, while the taxes collected from tariff duties amounted to a little more than $350,000,000.

The report has been rather general throughout Virginia within the past few months that Mr. Cabell would be nominated for Governor on the Republican ticket, although his friends state that he will devote his entire timo to the law, leaving active politics alone.

ANDOLLO FORDER

TO HUSTLE AWAY

Town of Harrisonburg Refuses to Become Resting Place for Roving Band.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 15.—A band of gypsies, probably the same one that has been marauding and plundering in various towns in the Valley, struck the police hustled them out of the corporation limits, where two deputy sheriffs, Crushorn and Pugh, took up the job of keeping the undesirable citizens on the move. When last seen the whole hand consisting or six new with whose band, consisting or six men with their wives and a dozen or fifteen chil-dren, had crossed the county line and dren, had crossed the county line and were entering Augusta County.

With their splendid horses and their six big wagons the visitors attracted no little attention in the towns. The pretty fortune-telling girls, with their gayly-colored dresses, dangling earrings, cunning eyes and ruddy cheeks, were no respecters of persons or places, entering boldly into stores, barrooms and private residences.

and private residences.

Many stories are being told to-day about the thieving and plundering of about the thieving and plundering of the wanderers.

At Penn-Laird yesterday they entered a store and helped themselves to olgars and other articles. It is also said that they halted several purchasers near the store and in the stampede took their packages away from them.

Toligate keepers had trouble with the peripatetic band. Gypsies are constitutionally opposed to tell and taxes. That's why they keep on the move. Near Mt. Crawford last night the deputy sheriffs had to intercede and force them to pay the woman in charge. The officers had shotguns, and gypsies dislike guns as much as tells and taxes.

Upon entering Mt. Crawford, a village, by the way, known to automo-

Wedding Gifts Our wide experience enables us to suggest the most appropriate article for the occasion desired.

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS., Richmond's Leading Jewelers,

ASHLAND TO WAGE WAR ON THIEVES

Citizens of Town Will Meet To-Night and Form Protective Association.

of numerous thefts lately committed in Ashland, a meeting has been called for all citizens for Wednesday night, April 16, in the Town Hall, beginning at $:15 o'clock, with Mayor Henry Ellis presiding. The object of this meeting is to form "The Citizens Protective Association." There was been a goodly amount subscribed, which will be deposited in the Hanover Bank, and as soon as a robbery is reported, to send at once to the State Farm and have the bloodhounds brought here and run down the thief.

Miss Alice Howison, of the State Normal Farmville, was recently here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

mond, spent the week-end at Gwath-Thomas H. Bigger and the Misses Bigger were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Mrs. Hugh Denoon and Charles Denoon, of Atlee, and Mrs. W. B. Wright, of Doswell, were here on Monday visiting their sister, Mrs. Benjamin Morgan Shepherd.

Mrs. Amanda Cross is visiting her grand-daughters, the Misses Blanton.
G. Merritt Nolley, of Afton, was the guest this week of Dr. R. F. Blackwell.
Miss Anna Hart has returned from a visit to friends in Richmond.

Miss Regina Dickerson, of Ellerson, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. The Junior Literary Club met this afternoon with Miss Ruth Blakey.

afternoon with Miss Ruth Blakey. "Pekin" was the subject of a delight-ful paper read by Miss Clarke Hoofnagle, and current events was discussed by Miss Sara Control cussed by Miss Sara Cardwell.

Judge George Shackleford, of Orange, was the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Professor and Mrs. R. B.

Protection for Women Powder prevents in-fection, heals dis-ensed tissues and is unexcelled as a wash. 26c. All druggists. Booklet and sample free.

J. S. TYREE, Chemist, Woshington, D. O.

Remember

Tragle's

a Department Drug Store. What we haven't got we can get

HAVE YOU SEEN THE

The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for N. Klein & Son., Inc

620 East Broad.

lage, by the way, known to automo-bilists far and wide, the nomads were greeted by a number of citizens who had guns on their shoulders and were prepared to fight the intruders. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHEE